Maafa 21

They were stolen from their homes, locked in chains and taken across an ocean. And for more than 200 years, their blood and sweat would be used to build the richest and most powerful nation the world has ever known.

But when slavery ended, their welcome was over. America's wealthy elite had decided it was time for them to disappear and they were not particular about how it might be done.

Now, a stunning new movie called Maafa 21 documents with incredible detail that the plan these people set in motion 150 years ago is still being carried out today.

Maafa 21 is about eugenics, and elitism, and well-hidden racial agendas. It's about treachery and corruption at the highest levels of political and corporate America. It's about things the media has been hiding and politicians don't want you to know.

But don't think Maafa 21 is a film about history. It's not. This is happening right here, right now.
